

Safeguarding Adults Week 2025

RSAB Multi-Agency Briefing Introduction to Safeguarding Adults

Redbridge Safeguarding Adults

As part of national Safeguarding Adults Week 2025, the Redbridge Safeguarding Adults Board is offering this free multi-agency briefing which provides an introduction to safeguarding adults at risk and includes:

- What is meant by the term 'safeguarding adults' and who do we safeguard?
- What are the different types of abuse and neglect?
- What action should be taken if abuse of an adult at risk is suspected?

There will be time for questions and answers plus signposting to further information.

Date/Time: 17 November 2025, 10:00 – 11:30

Facilitator: Beverley Meek, Strategic Lead – Safeguarding and Professional Practice (Adults), LBR

Target Audience: this briefing is free and available to all and volunteers working in agencies in any sector (public, private, community and voluntary) in Redbridge, who may come into contact with adults at risk. We particularly welcome participants from smaller community groups, faith organisations etc. It also includes those in support roles and also those working predominantly with children and young people.

Booking: To book a place on the briefing, please e-mail RSAB@redbridge.gov.uk including your name, job title, agency, and telephone number. An MS Teams invitation will then be sent to you. If you have any queries, please contact the Redbridge Safeguarding Adult Board Manager via 020 8708 5282 or 07775399017.
